Program/Grant Administration	Per grant guidance, a work plan was submitted within 60 days of grant award (9/30/2009). The GFBCI received approval of the work plan. A call for participation has been issued and over 100 organizations have expressed interest in participating. A competitive RFP was issued for technical assistance and training providers. Dr. James Slack has been awarded the evaluation contract and the contract has been approved by the Legislative Contract Review Oversight Committee. Four Capacity Academies have been scheduled through the summer with over 100 organizations participating. Over 110 faith-based and community organizations received capacity training over the course of the grant. All four Capacity Academies have been completed. Evaluations are currently being analyzed and compiled to see the effectiveness of the initial training activity. The project now transitions into the follow up phase for Year 02. A Year 02 work plan will be submitted to HHS in January 2011. The Year 02 plan provides continued technical assistance and training to participating organizations for the remainder of the project period. For completion of the project the Alabama Association of Nonprofits has been contracted (through an RFP process) to provide the remainder of the training and technical assistance for the project participants. The Association will also coordinate the final one day Sustainability Summit.
